

Cathy Bryarly is a retired Sheriffs Deputy. She was an original member of SARDUS when it began in 1993. She was a volunteer dog handler with Front Range Rescue Dogs from 1987 to 1997 and had a certified area search and avalanche dog, Morgan, from 1991 to 1997. Cathy was a K9 Bloodhound handler for the Boulder County Sheriff's Office from 2004 to 2017. Her first dog, Sally, was certified in trailing and her second dog, Jason, was certified in trailing and human remains detection. Her current dog, a Labrador named Sam, is certified in human remains detection. Sally, Jason, and Sam have all had successful searches in each of their various disciplines. Cathy enjoys coaching dog teams and testing them for certification.
