

John Beck has worked with search and rescue dogs since 1997.

He has worked numerous searches with his four Human Remains Detection dogs. He and his dogs have passed more than twenty certifications with organizations including SARDUS, North American Search Dog Network and Midwest Canine Alternatives.

John is on the Board of Directors for SARDUS. He is also one of the SARDUS Central Chapter leaders. He was president of NASDN from 2005-2012. He was a certified trainer and evaluator of Law Enforcement Detector Dogs for MCA from 2004-2019. John has organized and instructed seminars throughout the United States.